

STATE BACKS DOWN ON MEXICAN WRIT

Attachment Against Consulate Here Withdrawn at Behest of Hughes.

AMICABLE END IN SIGHT

Early Reopening of Offices Likely as Close to International Tangle.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
New York, Oct. 28.—The Secretary of State Hughes was notified today by the New York State authorities that a writ of attachment against the Mexican consulate in New York City had been lifted by Judge Tompkins of the New York Supreme Court.
Withdrawal of the writ followed representations by the State Department that the attachment of consulate property was illegal under international law.
Secretary Hughes was informed that the Oliver American Trading Company had requested the withdrawal of the writ after the Attorney-General of the State had called to its attention the international angle caused by the incident.
It is understood that the revocation of the writ applies to the consulate and the funds in it, but not necessarily to the funds of the Mexican Government on deposit in New York banks. The question of whether these funds are immune remains open.
The State Department felt confident the withdrawal of the writ against the consulate would lead to its reopening and the amicable ending of the incident.
The issue raised by the Mexican Embassy here concerned the consulate proper and not the funds on deposit in New York.

On being told the writ had been withdrawn, the Mexican Charge d'Affaires, Manuel C. Telex, who had ordered the consulate closed on instructions from Mexico City, said he would notify his government and ask permission to reopen the consulate as soon as he is officially informed by the State Department of the action taken by the New York authorities. He believes the con-sulate will be promptly reopened.
"Our main complaint," he said, "has been against the attachment, which seeks to deprive the Mexican Government of its sovereign rights. This we have regarded as a violation of the international law, and this was the basis of our complaint against the action of the New York courts."

POLICE JAIL CHANCELLOR OF HONDURAN CONSULATE

Latin-American Defies One Traffic Patrolman, Kicks Another in Stomach, Is Handcuffed and He and Wife Are Charged With Disorderly Conduct.

Guillermo De Bustillo, 24, of 1063 Bergen avenue, Brooklyn, who says he is a chancellor to the Consul from Honduras, was arrested last night on a charge of disorderly conduct after he had defied the authority of Traffic Policeman Michael Curry to arrest "a representative of a foreign government." Cressie De Bustillo, his wife, also was arrested.
For disregarding a traffic signal the car in which the two were riding was halted on Queensboro Bridge, Brooklyn, by Patrolman Curry, who demanded he be shown Mrs. De Bustillo's license to drive the automobile.
"Don't show him anything," De Bus-tillo is reported to have said. "You don't have to show him anything. He has no right to stop this car." Curry admonished De Bustillo to keep quiet, insisting that he must see the license card.
"Don't you see the coat of arms on this car?" De Bustillo is reported to have queried. "You have no right to stop us. I am chancellor to the Consul of Honduras."

Press.—Official and newspaper circles greeted the news from New York that the Oliver writ of attachment had been vacated as a distinct victory for the Mexican Government and vindication of that attachment on funds and property of the Mexican Government in a civil suit was not a derogation or within the immunity provided by international law.
"The North American Government Yields" was the headline used by El Mundo this afternoon to announce the news. The paper added that George T.
Sumner, the American Charge d'Affaires, called at the Foreign Office this morning and told Alberto J. Paul, Secretary of Foreign Affairs, that the American State Department had made representations to Gov. Miller of New York looking to lifting of the embargo.

DEATH THREAT TOLD BY WIFE OF RECTOR

Mrs. Christler Says Mrs. Carleton Pointed Gun at Her.

HAVRE, Mont., Oct. 28.—A demand for a thorough investigation of the tragedy resulting in the death of the Rev. Dr.
Leonard J. Christler, the "Bishop of all outdoors," and Mrs. Marguerite Carleton, wife of a former Montana district Judge, and the statement that Mrs.
Carleton threatened to kill Mrs. Christler, the clergyman's wife, before taking her own life, were today's developments in the murder and the suicide which occurred yesterday at the home of the Rev. Dr. Christler.
Mrs. J. H. Pyle, mother of Mrs. Carleton, announced today she would demand that the tragedy which cost her daughter's life be fully investigated.
Mrs. Pyle said United States Senator Walsh of Montana, a life long friend of the family, would have charge of the investigations for her. Senator Walsh is registered at a Havre hotel.
That Mrs. Carleton threatened her life after having shot her husband was a statement credited to Mrs. Christler today.
After telling what had happened the early part of the evening when services were held in her husband's church, followed by a church supper, Mrs.
Christler said:
"Dr. Christler had gone to accompany Dr. Chapman of Butte to the sleeping car about 12:30. 'I walked home slowly and saw the house lighted,' called Attorney G. C. Hague, a neighbor, who was passing, to stand on the porch while I went in. I found Mrs.
Carleton tearing up photographs of Mr.
Christler and also papers and burning them on the floor."
"I persuaded her to go out and we went out together, meeting Mr. Christler returning home. We three walked back together and went into the parlor and sat down. There are two doors to the parlor and Mr. Christler stepped through one of them, closing the door behind him.
Mrs. Carleton rushed to the other and passed through. Immediately I heard a shot and sprang to the door my husband had passed through. Mrs. Carleton stood with a gun in her hand and seemed crazed.
"She raised the gun and pointed it at me, but either did not pull the trigger or the cartridge failed to explode, as the gun wavered a second in her hand and she turned it against her left breast and fired without a word."

CONEY ISLAND OPENS PART OF BOARDWALK

Thousand Foot Stretch Lacks Nothing but Lights.

The first stretch of Coney Island's boardwalk was opened for traffic yesterday when two boards which had protected it from pedestrians were removed by Edward Riegelmann, Borough President of Brooklyn. The section extends from the howl at Ocean Parkway to West Fifth street, about 1,000 feet.
Flooring has been laid to a point about 1,000 feet beyond Fifth street, but this section will not be opened until the railing is in place.
The walk is eighty feet wide and has a concrete foundation with wooden flooring and railing. The only equipment lacking on the section opened yesterday is electric lights, which will be installed within the next few days.
Joseph A. Guider, Commissioner of Public Works, assisted Mr. Riegelmann in the ceremonies.
